June 15, 2007

Dear Corporate Friend,

I am contacting you on behalf of the Pittsburgh Lesbian and Gay Film Society (PLGFS); producers of the Annual Pittsburgh Lesbian and Gay Film Festival (PILGFF). PLGFS is an all-volunteer, non-profit 501(c) (3) organization. For the past 22 years, PILGFF has played a key role in our city's cultural and artistic identity and we are embarking on our 22nd year in 2007. The 2007 Festival will be held October 19 - 28, 2007.

As an all-volunteer, not for profit organization, PLGFS brings year round programming to Pittsburgh with the help of sponsors like you. Being a sponsor of the Film Society, you help insure that the organization continues to serve as one of Pittsburgh's premier cultural organizations. You also obtain access to a consumer market the Wall Street Journal calls "a dream market", the gay and lesbian community. Copernicus Marketing has this to say about the LGBT market:

"While a small group relative to the total population, the gay male market – established by some experts to be worth $500 billion – and the lesbian market – which has sustained the Subaru brand among others – are hardly anything to pooh-poooh or to lump into general consumer marketing efforts."

As a corporation, you understand the value of investing in and celebrating diversity. By becoming a sponsor of The Pittsburgh Lesbian and Gay Film Society, you not only succeed in marketing to an important and affluent customer, you show your commitment to the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender community in and around Pittsburgh.

The demographics of PLGFS event attendees are urban gay men and lesbians between the ages of 25 and 50 living in the city of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Allegheny County suburbs. The average household income of an event attendee is $57,000. By sponsoring a Film Society event, you are guaranteed a captive audience with an above average disposable income and a penchant for brand loyalty.

We are delighted this year to offer your corporation several different opportunities to help support PLGFS ongoing efforts while gaining visibility for your corporation as well.

I look forward to speaking with you about these opportunities. The deadline for Sponsorship and advertising for the festival is August 24, 2007.

Respectfully yours,
Lynn Drexler
President

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT,
LYNN

OUR ORGANIZATION

PLGFS MISSION STATEMENT

The Pittsburgh Lesbian and Gay Film Society is to celebrate LGBT culture and foster appreciation and visibility through film media.

A NEW DIRECTION

In 2006 the Pittsburgh International Lesbian and Gay Film Festival officially changed their name to the Pittsburgh Lesbian and Gay Film Society (PLGFS) in an effort to demonstrate their commitment to expand their direction. As the 5th oldest LGBT Film Festival in the world we are committed to our mission by not only showing films in October during our festival but also have a year round presence. With a new, enthusiastic board we are making the Pittsburgh Lesbian and Gay Film Society an important LGBT resource and becoming an active and driving force in the arts community of Pittsburgh. During the 2007 festival we will be expanding our programming and outreach efforts. We will work on programming quality films and holding events that will help drive Pittsburgh to the forefront of LGBT Festivals.

Since its inception in 1985, PILGFF has been committed to nurturing lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender writers, directors, actors, and their works. PILGFF showcases its films in well-respected and well-attended venues. The dates of the film festival have been set to avoid conflict with other major film festivals in eastern United States, which ensures a greater audience turnout and allows PILGFF to attract a high caliber of LGBT cinema by avoiding scheduling conflicts.

The Pittsburgh Lesbian and Gay Film Society is committed to providing an exceptional level of value for the Pittsburgh community. We have successfully established a standard of excellence that is reflected not only in the quality of films presented each year but also in the professionalism of the production of Film Society events.

We are a very energized organization and continue to keep our eyes focused on making the Pittsburgh Lesbian and Gay Film Society an important LGBT resource and to be an active participant and driving force in the arts community of Pittsburgh. We will continue our outreach efforts with community groups and local colleges to show that as a community we can work together to achieve great results. With these great results we will drive Pittsburgh to the forefront of LGBT Festivals.

This year we will continue to focus on positioning ourselves for the future and broadening our audience range by holding activities that are fun to attend, attract a wider audience and provide a sense of community. Our survey results from last year's festival show that people are interested in us not only showing films but also providing some activity afterwards that provide people the opportunity to socialize. To meet this need we will plan to secure more after movie locations to socialize, have more "meet and greets" and more panel discussions. We will also work with other organizations in order to bring organizations together and hold joint activities. We found this to work well during last year's festival and we want to continue good active working relationships all year round.

YEAR-ROUND ACTIVITIES:

Already in 2007, the Pittsburgh Lesbian and Gay Film Society, Inc. has several new and energizing activities planned. Already this year we have held our 2nd Annual "Red Carpet Bash" on Oscar night. On March 30, 2007 we presented our first "Movies Year Round" with the presentation of the film "Creatures from the Pink Lagoon". We brought the filmmaker, Chris Diani, to Pittsburgh in order to help us host the event and then have a "Meet and Greet" after the film. Chris had never been to Pittsburgh so he was excited to join us.

On April 20th, we held a fun event that was very successful during last year's festival. This event is the Buffy Sing-a-long. We had a capacity crowd last year and this event helped us reach a much broader and younger audience. Everyone had so much fun that we were asked to add this event to our year round activities and we have.

In 2007, PLGFS will produce the following:

February 25	Red Carpet Bash
March 30	First Quarter "Movies Year Round" Series
April 20	Buffy Sing-a-long
June 22	Second Quarter "Movies Year Round" Series – Pride Month
July 27	Buffy Sing-a-long
August 19	Women's Classic Series
September 7	Third Quarter "Movies Year Round" Series
October 19-28	22 nd Annual Pittsburgh International Lesbian and Gay Film Festival
November 30	Fourth Quarter "Movies Year Round" Series
